Fortnightly Profile – May 2020

Please keep sending your photo's.
This edition, our roses have been grown by Joan Collins.

City of Goulburn and Candy Stripe.

This beautiful apricot orange has a slight perfume. Grown for her husband Bill who was born in Goulburn in 1922. Candy Stripe is grown by Joan because it's pretty.

Gallipoli

This stunning red is grown in remembrance of the occasion.
Good grower and disease resistant.

Seduction

This pale pink rose is a vigorous grower with large numbers of blooms. Disease resistant and always has flowers.

Now is the time to prepare your beds for new, or transplanting of roses in June. I hope some of our featured roses are giving you ideas.

For your stock of Neutrog please contact Geoff Johnson on ph:49372635. Stay home, enjoy your garden, stay well.
